

Press Release

The Croatian Subsidiary of WOLLSDORF LEATHER, Wollsdorf Components d.o.o., Wins the Well-Known Croatian Export Prize, the “Golden Key”!

Last week, Wollsdorf Components d.o.o., the Croatian subsidiary of the successful Styrian company WOLLSDORF LEATHER, received the Croatian export prize, the “Golden Key”. The award was presented by Deputy Prime Minister and Croatian Minister of Economy Martina Dalić.

Companies like FERAIMPEX AUTOMOBILSKA TEHNIKA d.o.o. or SELF d.o.o. were among the nominees. In the preliminary round, Wollsdorf Components d.o.o. made it into the group of the 10 best companies and was ultimately declared the winner.

Managing director of WOLLSDORF LEATHER, Mag. Andreas Kindermann: “We are, of course, extremely pleased that our youngest subsidiary has won this prize. The presentation by the Deputy Prime Minister also underscores the importance of the export prize”. “We are especially proud to have received the “Golden Key” export prize in Zagreb,” says Managing Director of Wollsdorf Components d.o.o. Stefan Hillmann, “since our state-of-the-art cutting and sewing plant was only commissioned in October of 2014.”

Wollsdorf Components d.o.o. currently has a staff of approximately 350 employees in a 9,000 m² production space. The location has a weekly capacity of 150,000 steering-wheel leather sets.

The leather exclusively manufactured at the main plant in Austria is further processed at the plant Varaždin as cut parts, sewn leather and leather-covered components. A separate development department for cut parts and components has been established in order to meet the high demands of various customer groups.

Image: Print-out free of charge

From left to right: Managing Director Stefan Hillmann receives the prize presented by Mr. JOSEPH GENE PETRIĆ, assigned minister of the Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs, Department for Economic and Development Cooperation.

Wollsdorf, June 2017